STUDENT COUNCIL

The student Council of the Spartanburg High School was organized in 1936. The chief function of the Council is to unify the student body and to provide an opportunity for the students to voice ideas concerning the school's programs.

The Council is composed of the presidents of the homerooms, the presidents of each of the classes, and the president of the student body. It meets once a week at a definitely appointed time. Any other meetings of Council may be called by the president or the faculty adviser.

The Council's main objective is to promote and maintain a better spirit within the school. Each year it selects certain projects to work on. Assembly programs, the hall director system, and the lost and found bureau, are all a part of the work of the Council.

Step right up, folks! We are about to begin with our big show that will sweep you into the past. We won't promise you anything spectacular, but we shall endeavor to bring back to you some of the greatest days of anyone's life—our years at Spartanburg High School.

ACT I—SCENE I

As the curtain goes up on our first scene, we see a group of insignificant Freshmen who have invaded the halls of S. H. S. from the classrooms of Jenkins and Cleveland. Although we all seem to be in a dense fog, our activities, which are led by our capable president, Pat Federline, keep us so occupied that we gradually are becoming a part of S. H. S.

SCENE II

Scene—a football field. "Fight T e a m! Fight!" we hear resounding from the student section. The team is being led across the field by Captains Cannon and Farley, who inaugurate for us a fairly successful season under the direction of Coach Cox.

SCENE III

Before we can realize it, Christmas has come and gone, and we are now seen busily engaged in the many activities that take place during the second semester. Some of these are a fine basketball season, the Dramatic Club's presentation of Angel Street, and the gym circus.

But soon we are to bid our first crew of Seniors farewell, and we wish them all the luck in the world in their new venture into life. So ends our first year at our dear 'ole' Alma Mater.

ACT II—SCENE I

Here we find ourselves on a bright September morning in 1948. As we regretfully but happily make our way to school, we notice that some changes have been made in our administration. Of course, our beloved Mrs. Taylor is back with us again to lead the school in a new epidemic of school spirit and some fine choral music.

SCENE II

Here we find ourselves on the football field once again with some very fine players representing our team, such as Jimmy Brock, Big-un and Little-un Couch, and Dennis Barbare. Our basketball team has some rough-sledding, mainly because of an inexperienced group, but we all feel sure that they will redeem themselves next year.

SCENE III

The scene is set in the auditorium, and we find ourselves in the midst of one of the most hotly contested presidential campaigns in our history. Whom shall we vote for, Shelby or Moody?

But all to soon it comes time again to bid our Seniors farewell with tears but also secret ambitions, because we know that we will soon emerge into that wonderful era—becoming an upperclassman!

History . . . 1951

ACT III—Scene I

Moody Smith stars now in leading the cast in a most eventful year as president of the Student Council. Moody is kept very much occupied with our radio program "Class Change" and with winning oratorical contests.

Scene II

Coach Stutz's team has a good season on the football field this year and closes out with a triumphant victory over Gaffney. Starring in this scene are Captain Lawrence Hammitt and Co-Captain Allen Fine, the latter represents us on the Shrine Bowl from South Carolina.

Scene III

Clear the Stage! Make way for the Frantic Follies, our super colossal variety show! The show is a great success.

Scene IV

Our guest star in this scene is Miss Koelbl, who has come all the way from Germany to visit our school and to see how S. H. S. students go through their daily routine of rushing from class to class and standing in line at "Mother Manning's" cafeteria.

ACT IV—Scene I

At last—the climax—we are starring as Seniors and have risen from the dungeon on the first floor to the lofty heights of the third floor! Our new director is Mr. McCracken, who comes to us from North Carolina.

Scene II

The main character in scene two is played by Jimmy Suber, who leads the Student Council through a wonderful year. Co-starring with Jimmy is Buddy Hammond, President of the Senior Class.

Scene III

On Stage—we see a group of students cheering our great football team in the most colorful event in many years—The Pep Parade. Our team is to be congratulated on overcoming our most bitter rivals, Greenville and Gaffney, not to mention all the other hapless foes who fell under the might of the Crimson Tide.

Scene IV

Here we see a great troup of actors performing in the Dramatic Club's presentation of one of their best plays Eastward in Eden.

Scene V

The finale comes at last, and those who thought they would be glad to see this play end realize how wonderful these four years have been.

We hope that the finale will not bring a climax to our lives but will make us face a challenge to make all our lives as successful as this play.

Prophecy

Three weird and wicked witches meet on a barren heath one stormy, gloomy day in 1951 to prophecy the destinies of Spartanburg High's outgoing seniors. As these three wicked sisters stir their witches' brew, they ponder over the various personalities of our graduating class, and we are here to present their prophecies to you just as they were presented to us:

The First Witch chants, as she adjusts her glasses and stirs the brew with a ruler: "The spirits reveal to me Buddy Hammond as he closes his world-famous Hillbilly Jamboree with his theme song, 'Hadacol Boogie.' Here we have double, double toil and trouble as Doris Turner warms up the getaway car for the notorious gangster, Jean Littlejohn. It seems that this celebrated twosome have gained great recognition in this field but no more than have the renowned detectives, William Tucker, Jane Varn, and Cecil Brown, who are close on their trail, assisted by their bloodthirsty hounds bred by none other than that unequalled dog-breeder, 'Hound Dog' Craver.

"Shirley Lowe is working madly to get out on time the Cowpens Daily, of which she is editor, while her business manager, Ana Mayo, is beating her salesmen for lack of ads. Yuk, yuk, fine going! In form more palpable, I see Mitzi Thomas as hostess of her very exclusive dress shop, 'La Petite Shoppe,' as her latest designs are displayed by her slinky, expert models, Ann Harley, Barbara Wooten, and Carolyn Steading. Among the onlookers I spy with my evil eye 'Sleepy' Lee, and Stewart Heath, gaping as in a coma.

"Ah-h-h and the fumes of my charm'd pot now reveal to me Ansie Lou Johnson, hobbling around furiously as she gives the little 'Fains' last minute instructions before their marching in the Christmas Parade."

"By the pricking of my thumbs
Another wicked one this way comes."

(The Second Witch glares with piercing and beady eyes into the gruel, thick and slab.)

Stirring the cauldron with hammers, she cries: "Behold the builders of the nation! Earl Ward, President of the United States, assisted by his cabinet: 'Fool-em-All' (Angus) Lander, 'B o i s t e r o u s' (Dean) Buchanon, 'Leave-em-Laughin' (Dan) Cromer, and Paul ('Track-em-Down') McKinney. 'F l o w i n g Voice' (Tillie) Tillotson debates the current problem: What's to Be Done With Wade Burley.

"I see in Lowe's Cowpen's Daily this headline: Big Time Poultry Boss, Thornwell Frick, Sues Rhode Island purple's Dealer, Walter Massey. Frick's renowned female attorney, Eleanor Breazeale, declares her case sewed up, while Karl Brandt, Massey's dynamic defender, hopes to break the case wide open. Notorious gambler, 'Card Shark' (Cecil) Smith and 'Diamond King' (Henry) Jacobs have already been fined for contempt of court and thrown out by bouncer Gilbert ('Apey') Cox. The former was fined for prolonged winking at the female attorney and the latter for loudly voicing comments in behalf of Massey. (Heaping books and test papers in cauldron, witch continues):

"For a charm of powerful trouble,
Like a hell-broth boil and bubble."

"Lo! It comes! Ah-h-h, here we see it: The Kentucky Derby! Bill Hurt, MGM photographer, is hanging on desperately to a horse's tail as he snaps Elsie Seldon, internationally known jockey, thundering across the finish line on the celebrated 'Always Laggin', highly prized stallion of renowned horsebreeder, Anne Shea. Some of the joyous and successful betters in the crowd are: Mary Norris and all the little 'Neighbors,' David Turner, Ginger Johnson, Jack Hambrick, Lewis Montgomery and Bobby Kelly. Chewing her cigar frantically, horse trainer Cynthia Gibbs bellows advice from the sidelines to the winning jockey."

"My speech is fully done,
And yours, my sister, is just begun."

(The Third Witch slyly mutters to herself as she throws in dish water and stirs the bubbling concoction with rolling pins.)

Third Witch: "Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue. I see, rising in the smoke, the faces of Betty Lambert, Lib Hall, Ann Fain, Carolyn Hyatt, Frankie Jo Lister, Nell Jolley, Mary Bryson, Joan Beville, Sylvia Bates, Nancy Drinkhard, Betty Jean Brown, and Betty Foster. Beautiful creatures! Are they the only such fortunate ones?

"Oh, no, for in different walks of life we see others: 'Fuzzy' Long, assisted by Doug Queen, is seen coaching the widely acclaimed Crimson Tide to countless victories. In professional football we see Jimmy Dennis, John Bryant, Warren Martin, Bill Bryant, Billy Phillips, Ted Arthur, Paul Cope, and Walter Bell. Aha, and here is Malvin Wallace, pro-basketball player, thriving on his lavish fortune, as is Carolyn Cudd, who obtained her fortune through the establishment of hospitals for de-nourished animals. In her scientific laboratories the famous s c i e n t i s t s John Karegeannes, Billy Bedenbaugh, and Fritz Frank are working on a new drug even more effective than Hadacol! Here, we also find Dr. Anne Weathers administering aid to Dana Hurst's pedigreed 'Sausage.'

"In Hunt's Dancing School we find hostesses Frances Satterlee, Patsy Jean Cheney, Katie Oakman, Shirley Frey, Doris Coggins, Marion Bearden, Betty Hauser, and Louise White. Frequent customers found here are Robin Mangum, Thomas Taylor, Bill Boyd, Frank Farmer, and Walter Brice. (Third Witch throws powder into pot: a flash displays an overall picture of the preceding prophecies and next shifts forward to the future.)

(All witches croon together):

"Boil, black cauldron, boil and bubble;
Look from us, O ye students!
Visions bring you no more trouble.
Seek to know no more!"

The storm deepens over the barren heath, and low rumbles fill the air. The hags huddle closer, stirring swiftly, ever more swiftly. They cackle as they fasten their glittering eyes on the cauldron, now boiling with the fury of a violent tempest. Louder and more piercing rises their chant.

Suddenly, with a mighty roar, witches and cauldron vanish in wisps of smoke. Lo! In its place, behold the Melting Pot of the Nations, S. H. S. in the center! There stand the Judges of United Nations:

Jimmy Suber	Howard Cook
Joyce Flynn	Richard Dowdeswell
Mabel Carlisle	Bill Hagler
Mary Patterson	Margaret Davis
John Stratford	Jeanette Anderson
Karl Brandt	Alan Sharpton

Surrounding them, row on row, in the mighty Halls of Peace, stand the remaining seniors of S. H. S., their heads held high, their resolution firm that war shall vanish from the Earth! In triumphant chorus, like the notes of a deep-toned organ, they chant:

"Their spears shall be turned into pruning forks
And their swords into plowshares,
And Peace shall reign forevermore!"

Dot Kirkpatrick,
Janice Long.

Last Will and Testament

PREAMBLE

We the Graduating Class of 1951 from Spartanburg High School, holding deep and precious memories of our dear Alma Mater which we have attended for four glorious and prosperous (????) years, do bequeath to the underclassmen and administration of the said institution, this, our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. McCracken we leave our hearty appreciation for a job well done in his initial year as our Superintendent.

To Mr. Rice we bequeath one copy of the doxology to aid in his celebration of our departure.

To Mr. Humphries we leave this tender poem:

"We luf you little,
We luf you big,
We luf you like,
A little pig!"

To Mrs. Minus we leave our heart felt sympathy.

To Miss Cudd we give our grateful thanks for all that she has done to make our many days at S. H. S. happy and full of prosperity.

To Miss Otts we bestow 500 already properly filled schedule cards.

To Mrs. Taylor we leave our love and devotion for helping us along in every phase of our high school life.

ARTICLE II

To the juniors, we leave our "misques" so that they can profit by them.

To the sophomores, we will our vacancies in the cafeteria line.

To the freshmen, we add a rung to the ladder of their success as upperclassmen.

ARTICLE III

Thornwell Frick leaves his musical ability to Jimmy Anderson.

Britt Glenn wills his energy to Steve Huntley.

Frances Satterlee bequeaths her vacancy in the "Toni Twin" combination between her and Carl Clark to Barbara Sloan.

Donnie Block wills his ability to play a trumpet to "Little" Tuggle.

Paul McKinney leaves his excellent posture to Bill Seifert.

"Fuzzy" Long leaves the football team to the coming captain, Scott Hull.

William Tucker leaves his desire to go to cheer practice to Marjorie Johnson.

Mary Patterson bestows her sweet nature and ability to get along with people to Jan Bell.

Jimmy Suber leaves his desire to be a good school citizen to Gabe Hill.

Daniel Cromer wills his "cat" clothes to Bobby Burnett.

Mabel Carlisle leaves her height to Carolyn Trimmier.

Bobby Kelly leaves his ability to get along with Mrs. Jenkins to Lewis Porter.

Katie Oakman and Ann Harley leave their beauty to Marie Childs.

Shirley Frey wills her band sponsor's vacancy to Ann Mize.

Jane Ann Nolan leaves her "mouth" to Bennie McIntyre.

Shirley Lowe bequeaths the Scribbler to Ann Hudgens.

Stewart Heath leaves his intellectual traits to McRae Temples.

John Stratford wills his clothes and ability to get a date to Aubrey Rothrock.

Bill Boyd bestows his salesmanship ability and D. E. pin to James Shields.

Ana Mayo leaves the fourth-period Spanish class so that Mrs. Kerr may resume her teaching responsibilities.

Walter Brice bequeaths his vacancy as a cheerleader to any boy brave enough to put up with six girls year after year.

Lib Hall bestows her bells in the marching band to Harriet Hair.

Henry Jacobs leaves his deep and masculine voice to Charlie Godfrey.

Louise White leaves her vacancy in the all boys commercial law class to any girl who can flirt as she can.

Buddy Hammond and Marion Forlidas have decided to take their injuries with them and leave their football vacancies to Jimmy Covington and Walter Suber.

Al Powell bestows his white shoes to George Wilson.

Wade Burley leaves . . . much to the sorrow of the Dramatics Club.

Alec Costas wills the canteen to Mike Kavounis.

Johnny Karegeannes wills his friendly traits to Ray Eubanks.

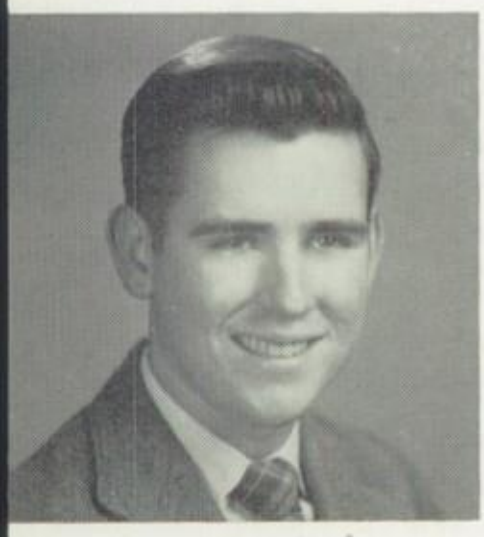
Senior Class Poem



Dean Buchanan

Consider the days that lie ahead
And the days that have gone by
Are you proud of yourself for the choice you've made,
Or is the future really worthwhile?
There is much to be found if you'll but look
And have faith to believe you can.
Success is inspired by the succeeder's attempt;
Do what you think best with good mind.

This is the day we look forward to,
But dread when it appears;
Do you ask yourself, "What did I do
To consider it through in twelve years?"
'Tis not the end, there's a long trail yet
And a journey which should be made.
It's rough they say, not easy to get;
Hard stepping stones to success lead the way.

And too there's a stream which must be crossed,
And it's much too deep to wade;
But there is a power which buoys us on
And helps one to continue the way.
'Tis the spirit of hope and effort put forth,
By the one who wishes to be—
The mind's desire for what the soul doth crave,
And "To be what He'd have me be."

At the end of the trail is the tree of life,
Where the hungering soul may be fed.
The shade of the tree offers greatest repose
From the things both past and ahead.
It's well we get there, and well that we stay—
'Til rest has completed this aim.
Eat of the fruit as a strengthening relay,
For the dawning brings you your fame.

—Dean Buchanan.

Jimmy,
Sure have enjoyed being in Gym Class with you.

SPARTANA

From a few sheets of copy paper and a few photographs has come the book which you hold in your hand. We of the staff have tried to establish a permanent record of your Spartanburg High School days, so that you may recall many of the little things, as well as the big, which this changing year has brought about. We of the SPARTANA staff hope we have given you something more to be proud of, for we are proud that the privilege of composing it was given to us.

1950 Football Season

The Crimson Tide opened its season by traveling to Wilmington where it was completely outclassed by Wilmington, one of the strongest teams in North Carolina. The score was 39 to 0.

The team opened the home season by playing Fairforest. Although the Tide was greatly hindered by injuries received in the Wilmington game, it came out on top with a score of 26 to 6.

The next game, against Parker, was a hard fought game from the first kick-off. Spartanburg played a great game but couldn't push the ball over the goal line. Parker scored twice to make the final tally read 14 to 0.

In a tough game with Union each team scored once, but the Crimson Tide held a one-point margin at the end of the game. The final outcome of the battle was 7 to 6.

Against Columbia, Spartanburg took the initiative in the opening minutes of the game. The Columbia team withered under the powerful tide attack. Spartanburg reigned with a score of 35 to 0.

The next week the Crimson Tide traveled to Greenwood to play the Greenwood Emeralds. The Tide couldn't match Greenwood's early six-point lead. The game ended with Spartanburg tailing 6 to 0.

Against Anderson the Crimson Tide played good ball but not good enough to down their rival. The game ended in Anderson's favor 26 to 6.

Spartanburg scored first in the Dreher game but was unable to keep its early lead. Dreher was victorious with a score of 25 to 18.

The best game of the season was played against Greenville when the Crimson Tide won 7 to 6.

ALLEN, MOONEYHAM, Managers

Spartanburg's Homecoming Game against Easley was a one-sided affair. Easley played hard but couldn't stop the tide. The Green Waves were defeated 46 to 6.

Our traditional Thanksgiving game was a howling success. Every Crimson Tider gave a good account of himself. When the final whistle blew, the scoreboard read 19 to 0 in our favor.

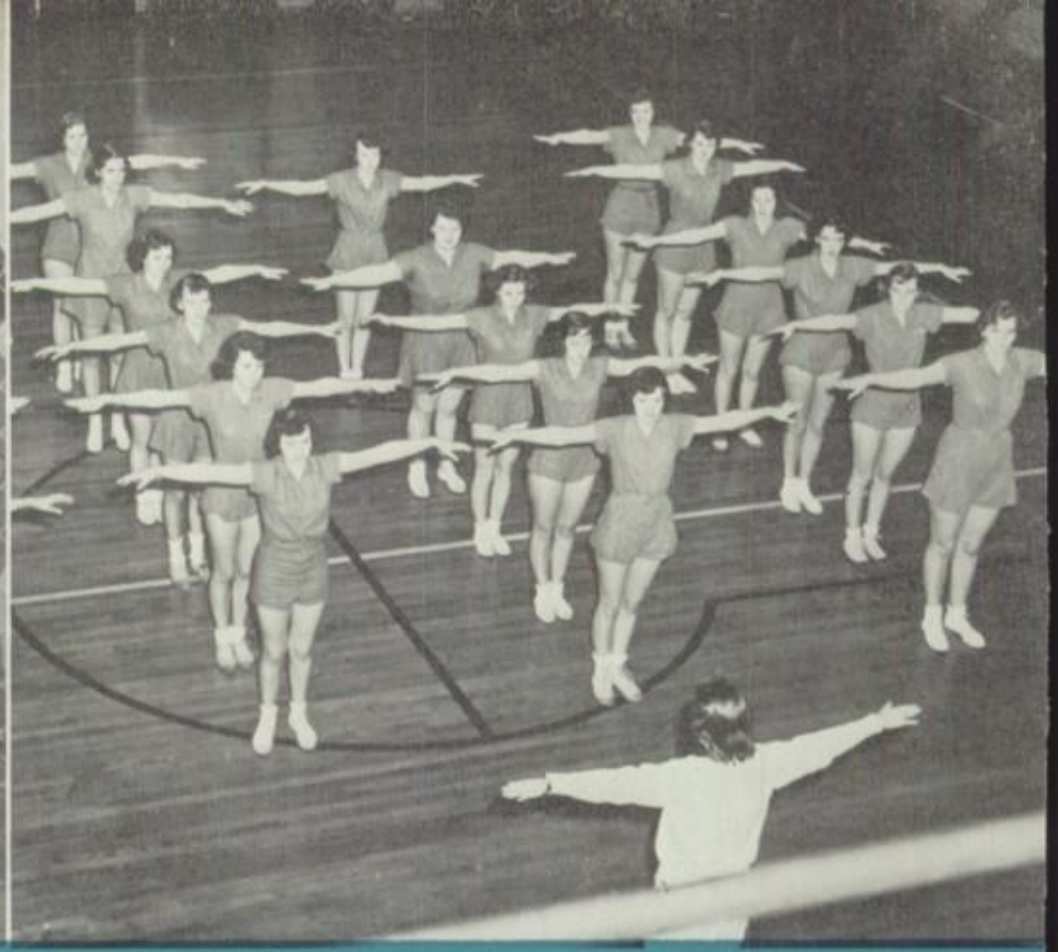
Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders were elected last year by the student body from a group of Junior Varsity cheerleaders.

Spartanburg High School cheerleaders for 1950-1951 are Jan Bell, Manager, Walter Brice, Tillie Tillotson, Mary Patterson, Frankie Jo Lister, Carol Clark, and Joan Fleming. Alternates are Carolyn Jones and Marjorie Johnson.

The cheerleaders under the able direction of Miss Lillian Grant and Mrs. Margaret Taylor have worked tirelessly to promote good school spirit and enthusiasm at the cheer practices and varsity games.



Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the capable leadership of Miss Emmie Evans, is affiliated with the National Amateur Athletic Federation. This club which is open to every girl promotes interest in indoor and outdoor sports.

The club sponsors a varied and seasonal program of sports including softball, volleyball, intramural basketball, and field hockey. Several hikes are taken each year. Two highlights in the 1950-51 program were the square dance clinic and the mountain trip. The club also took an active part in the gym circus.

Members are given points for each of the activities in which they take part. At the end of the year a banquet is held in which each girl who has one hundred points or more receives an emblem.
